At Rock Port Telephone, we are aware of our responsibilities and are dedicated to protecting the privacy rights of every internet user. We are highly sensitive to the privacy of each of the subscribers on our hosted Email lists and will keep their name, address and any other information confidential.

Permission-Based Marketing Policy
Rock Port Telephone may send Emails to individuals with whom they have an existing relationship or who have not expressly indicated through an opt-out process that they do not want to receive Email communications.

Unsubscribing from Rock Port Telephone Emails.
Each Email sent through Rock Port Telephone's Email system contains an easy and automated way to unsubscribe from receiving Emails from the sender. You may also change your expressed interests at any time. If you wish to unsubscribe or change your interests, simply follow the instructions at the bottom of any Email. If you have received an unwanted Email sent by Rock Port Telephone's Email system, please forward a copy of the Email with your comments to marketing@mwdata.net.

Will your information be shared, sold or rented?
We will never share, sell, or rent personal information unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees responsible for managing this data.

Privacy Policy
Rock Port Telephone is committed to protecting your online privacy. This Privacy Policy is incorporated into and subject to the Terms and Conditions of the use of our website. By using our website, you pledge to abide by those Terms and Conditions. We uphold the highest industry standards in online privacy and permission marketing.

The Information We Collect
Rock Port Telephone's registration forms require users to give us contact information that may include name, email address, address and facts about you and/or your company.

Rock Port Telephone does not share any of your personal information with third parties. FireDrum.com does not collect any information about you other than your first name and email address unless you provide it voluntarily. Please note that you are under no obligation whatsoever to provide this extra personal information in order to continue to receive your periodic promotion and special event news.

Website Usage Information
Rock Port Telephone uses your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our website. We do not link your IP address to any personally identifiable information. We use tracking information to determine which areas our site users visit based on traffic to those areas. Rock Port Telephone does not track what individual users read, but rather how often each page is visited. This helps us maintain a superior and informative website for you.

Your Email Lists and Databases
Rock Port Telephone and its parent company will never sell, rent, share or otherwise make available your email lists and/or databases to anyone except internal support personnel who may be assisting you in troubleshooting your account. Rock Port Telephone is not in the business of selling data.

Security and Privacy
Rock Port Telephone's website uses security measures to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. We store the information in our database within a secure environment at our data center. We will never sell, rent or share individual personal information with anyone unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your subscriptions.

Tracked Information
On occasion, we will use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our web site. We also may track browser types to help us understand our visitors' needs as they relate to our website design. You may review and change your information at any time by clicking on the "modify profile" link found at the bottom of emails sent via our system, or by contacting us at marketing@mwdat.net.
